A

Thermex Calais in stainless with motor is a timeless free-hanging Calais hood is an elegantly designed classic from Thermex. Easy and simple operation and a quiet motor.

Model Calais is a beautiful and harmonious arc-shaped hood made entirely of stainless steel. The Calais is equipped with a labyrinth filter, which ensures maximum suction power and minimum noise level.

The 4 LED spots ensure a good and uniform working light over the entire hob. The glass touch controls, where you can easily switch between 5 speeds, are simple and straightforward to use. Furthermore, the Calais has functions such as suction and an indicator for cleaning the filter.

It is possible to choose between a large number of different external motors for the roof, ceiling or wall. It removes all noise from the kitchen so you can concentrate on cooking and enjoying the kitchen.
