A+

Thermex Derby II 90 cm wall-mounted in stainless steel with a motor is a true classic with curved shapes in glass and steel. Powerful and reliable range hood with super simple glass touch control

Thermex Derby II island model has a classic design with its curved glass panel. Many people appreciate the design and the clean look it achieves with the curved glass panel. It offers an affordable price and is a safe and popular purchase that simply looks great. The operation is simple and intuitive with glass touch controls, allowing you to adjust the hood's suction power and turn the lights on and off. Cleaning the Derby II is easy. The glass can be cleaned with regular window cleaner, and the filter can be easily removed and washed in the dishwasher. The built-in motor ensures effective extraction at 595 m³/h
